At the Howe Opera House.

Manager Chapman is presenting the leading attractions of the season and that the public appreciate this is shown by the increasing business done at St. Johnsbury theatre. Thursday evening Phinney's Band give a grand concert, coming direct from the Mechanics Fair, Boston, where during the past week they have received high words of praise. This organization is at the head of the military bands of the country. The band will appear in handsome uniform and will present a rich program, closing with the magnificent production, "From Battlefield to Fireside." The soloists will be L. Zimmerman, trombone; Chas. Fisher, xylophone; A. Schina, cornetist.

Contemporaneous authors and opposition managers have all admitted that one of the greatest successes of the day is "The Christian" which is booked here for Friday evening. The play, though in its fifth season, is still drawing crowded houses and the receipts at the box offices have reached $1,500,000, twenty per cent of which are admitted as net earnings. "The Christian" is a great play written by a great author and presented by players taken from the ranks of the best in the profession. The scenic outfit is carried with the company which numbers upwards of 50 people, hence the play is presented in its original perfection.

Manager Chapman has booked for Wednesday evening, October 15, "The Two Sisters," the play which Deamon Thompson and jolly George W. Ryer have written so cleverly and which at one bound jumped into a great degree of popularity. Many of the original cast have been engaged and the new members of the company have been selected with a degree of care seldom exercised in the formation of a dramatic organization.

The leading attractions for the near future are Lewis Morrison's spectacular version of "Faust" and Rose Coghlan in that thrilling society drama, "The Second Mrs. Tanqueray."

Montpelier Seminary's Prosperity.

Principal Davenport of Montpelier Seminary, who occupied the pulpit at Grace Methodist church Sunday, is enthusiastic over the prospects of his school. The number of students in the dormitories is the largest in 11 years; 12 of the 14 counties in Vermont are represented in the school, and students from 20 other high schools and academies are enrolled this year. The increased attendance requires two new teachers this year. During Mr. Davenport's principalship of less than two years the attendance in the business department has increased until five new typewriters are required. In the music rooms two new pianos have been added to the equipment. In this department last year the aggregate attendance was 100, and in the commercial school the number exceeded this. This institution has many friends throughout Vermont who will rejoice in its prosperity.

Letter to Lyman P. Harriman.

St. Johnsbury, Vt.

Dear Sir: If you buy paint by the gallon, look out for short measure. There are great businesses founded on ten per cent short. It is queer that a man or concern'll expose his or its nakedness so; but he does, and it does. Look out.

But that isn't all to look out for. Some give full measure, and cheat in the quality. What do you paint for, the looks? or to keep your house from rotting? Both, of course.

A big hotelman painted Devoe eight years ago; was going to paint it again—eight years is a good long time for a hotel, you know—struck a bargain: saved five cents a gallon; and missed Devoe.

Poor fellow! There isn't an oz. of lead in his paint—he don't know how good or bad it is; but there isn't any lead in it. Yours truly,

F. W. DEVOE & CO.
P. S. Flint Bros., St. Johnsbury, and S. O. Morse, Danville, sell our paint.
